DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the media on a drum selected from a plurality of drums within an image device must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

Art Unit: 2852

2. Claim 21 is objected to because it depends upon cancelled claim 20. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-19, 21-24, and 27-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Koide (6,868,244). The method for accommodating different drum loads in an imaging device, the method by Koide comprises steps of." a) applying a drive stimulus to the drum load; b) monitoring the response of the drum load to the stimulus; c) determining a new value for at least one control parameter for driving the drum load; and d) updating the control parameter in accordance with the new value (figure 6; column 10, line 58 - column 13, line 15). The steps (b) to (d) are performed under closed loop feedback control (figure 6; column 10, line 58 – column 2, line 20). The steps (a) to (d) are performed under open loop feedback control (figure 6). The steps (b) to (d) are iteratively repeated (figure 6; column 13, lines 5-15).

Koide teaches a system for driving a drum load, comprising: a drum drive for driving the load; an encoder for sensing the resulting rotation of the drum, and a controller operably connected to the drum drive to provide control signals thereto, the control signals derived by the controller in response to rotational information received from the encoder 109, the controller having a drive parameter estimator for determining suitable drive conditions for the load (column 7, lines 39-44). The drive parameter estimator comprises instructions stored in computer readable memory (column 10, line 58 - column 13, line 15). The drive parameter estimator comprises an adaptive controller (figure 6).

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 10-31-2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argued that Koide does not teach selecting a drum from plural drum within the imaging device. However, the recitation of selecting a drum from plural drums was added in the amendment filed 5-5-2006, and it is unclear where this is discussed in the specification. In addition, "the plural drums" in an imaging device is not depicted. At least one figure depicting plurals drum that carry a paper load in an imaging device is requested.

The claims remain rejected since the specification does not provide support for the argued allowable subject matter.
